THE STATE RAILWAYS.

It is proposed to spend at least L.E.3,000,000 on bringing the State Railways into proper order. A credit of L.E. 700,000 has already been accorded this year, of which L.E. 420,000 is to be spent on rolling stock. It is obviously impossible to spend such large sums at once, but great efforts are being made to get the work done as soon as possible. As long as the Railway Administration remained an international institution it was impossible for it to keep pace with the requirements of commerce. The sums which would have sufficed for the purpose accumulated in the coffers of the Caisse de la Dette in the form of the Egyptian Reserve Fund. The Caisse only granted sums from their free balance, under restrictions which might be called vexatious, and on the condition that the Government granted money to an equal amount. The Government funds available were so small in view of the immense demands of irrigation that the result was the financial starvation of the railways for a series of years. The results of this period cannot be remedied to day or to-morrow, but the Administration is hard at work to make up lost ground. The Accounts and Audit Departments have lately been put into excellent order by Major Le Breton, and it is proposed to strengthen the higher personnel by importing officials from abroad.

TRIBUNAL JUDICIAIRE

COUR D'APPEL MIXTE

OPÉRATION DE BOURSE

Les plaidoiries de l'affaire Stagni-Salinas ont pris fin hier matin. Les parties ont renouvelé la barre les arguments qu'elles avaient portés devant le tribunal de Commerce d'Alexandrie, qui, comme l'on sait, a condamné Stagni e figli, tandis que la juridiction consulaire italienne et la Cour d'Appel d'Ancone leur ont donné gain de cause.

Stagni e figli avaient la veille du paiement du coupon d'intérêts vendu un millier d'obligations du Chemin de fer Keneh-Assouan à Salinas frères. Ces derniers qui avaient vendu les titres à la National Bank of Egypt prétendent, suivant les usages de la place avoir droit à ce coupon, droit qui est formellement contesté par Stagni e figli. Ceux-ci soutiennent, en effet, que le coupon étant le fruit de l'argent placé en titre, revient à celui qui l'a détenu toute l'année et non à celui qui ne l'a possédé qu'un seul jour.

Cette question, très simple en elle-même, est en l'espèce compliquée par des demandes de régularisation de vente, dommages-intérêts, etc. Jugement à huitaine.

THE LOTTERY LAW.

DISTURBANCES AT CAIRO.

MR. CATTAGU'S HOUSE ATTACKED.

The discontent with the enactments of the new lottery law culminated in an extraordinary scene which took place at Cairo this morning.

The law came into operation on Monday, and since then the police both in the Capital and at Alexandria, have been most energetic in putting a stop to the sale of lottery tickets in the streets. The hawkers of these tickets, who were very numerous, have found that their occupation has come to an end and great discontent has ensued. A considerable number of those public vendors of lottery tickets are Jews, and they have been especially annoyed with the leading members of their community at Cairo for not, as they think, protecting them against the rigours of the new law by intervening on their behalf.

These men considered that their source of livelihood need not have been sacrificed if their richer brethren had brought influence to bear on their behalf, and their resentment has found a vent in the person of Mr. Cattagui.

This morning a crowd of out-of-work Jewish lottery ticket hawkers made their way to that gentleman's house. Their attitude was most menacing and a number of the men forced their way into the house. The police had meanwhile been summoned, and a strong force of mounted and foot police appeared on the scene. The mounted policemen succeeded in dispersing the mob, and six of the ringleaders have been arrested.

ZIZINIA THEATRE.

THE FOUNDLINGS' GALA.

The success of yesterday evening's "representation de gala" at the Zizinia Theatre can only be described as colossal. The long and varied programme was gone through without a single hitch. The fête had been organised for the benefit of the Alexandria Foundlings' Institution, and for many weeks past most elaborate preparations had been made to ensure success. The committee of this worthy charity includes M. Pierre Girard, honorary president; Comtesse de Zoghbe, president; M. Christian Sinano, vice-president, and Mesdames Abbât, Charles Bacos, Chataway Bey, Gabriel Debbane, Poilay Bey, Fred. Simond, Socolis, Emmanuel Zervudachi, Georges Zervudachi, and Alex. de Zoghbe. These ladies are to be congratulated on the success which has attended their efforts, for the financial result of last night's performance should place the charity on a satisfactory and permanent footing. The theatre presented a brilliant aspect, and was filled with a representative gathering of all sections of society at Alexandria, including the Duke of the Abruzzi, Prince Omar Pasha Toussoun, and Prince Haidar.

The first part of the performance consisted of a concert. The vocal items were exquisitely rendered by Mme Briand, Miss Claire Ricard, and Miss Verita, while the musical portion of the programme fell to such well-known local musicians as Messrs. Affendoulis, Suzan, Capozzi, Sheridan and Elrich. A great feature of this part of the entertainment was the fine recitation by Poilay Bey of Baron Jacques de Menasse's magnificent poem, "Les Bonnes Œuvres." The concert was followed by that very amusing farce "Monsieur Tranquille." Here again Poilay Bey was an immense success and his efforts were admirably seconded by Messrs. Rodocanachi and Lumbroso, who succeeded in keeping the audience intensely amused by their vivacious acting.

The second part of the evening's entertainment was the fairy pantomime, "Cinderella." For a long time past tales have been bruted about of the fortunes that had been spent on the dresses, and the superb mounting of the pantomime. But the most extravagant rumours had not been exaggerated, and the gorgeousness of the mise en scene and the magnificence of the entire performance beggar description. The story, which was in dumb show, was arranged by Poilay Bey after Perrault, while the music had been skilfully adapted by Mr. Nicholas Sinadino. A clever prologue was composed and recited by Mr. Rodocanachi. The story does not need telling, but it is no exaggeration to say that the mounting of the pantomime could not have been surpassed anywhere. All those who took part had spared no expense on their dresses and costumes, and the grouping of the performers and the expert gracefulness of the dancing showed that no pains had been spared on rehearsing. Cinderella's rôle fell to Mrs. Charles Bacos, who impersonated the heroine with a girlish grace which was as natural as it was charming. Her two sisters were Mrs. Critchley and Miss de Tschudy, who, quite contrary to the usual pantomime traditions, rivalled the beauty of their neglected sister. One of the most beautiful effects of the pantomime was the make up of the Fairy Godmother, Mme de Planta, whose magnificent costume became her splendid figure to a nicety. Mrs. Chataway looked and acted the part of the Queen and her dress was much admired. Mr. Caravia as Prince Charming and Mr. Constantinides as the King were very good. Poilay Bey was again a tremendous success as the Lord High Chamberlain. It would be invidious to single out any of the lesser parts where all were so good, but among the Dukes the costume of Baron Alfred de Menasse was especially admired, and he looked very striking in his Vandyck garb. We must reserve full descriptive details for another issue, but we must not omit to mention the Cake Walk at the conclusion, in which Baron René de Menasse and Mr. Ramsay brought down the house.

THE EGYPTIAN INVESTMENT AND AGENCY, LIMITED.

STATUTORY MEETING IN LONDON.

The statutory meeting of the Egyptian Investment and Agency (Limited) was held at Winchester House, London, E.C., on the 7th inst., at 12 o'clock noon, Sir Frederic Fryer, K.C.S.I., chairman of the company, presiding. The Secretary (Mr. Chas. I. Gardiner) having read the notice convening the meeting.

The Chairman said:—Gentlemen.—This company was registered on the 9th of January 1905. There was a phenomenal subscription, which amounted to £3,527,678. The preliminary expenses, which were estimated at £2,500, amounted to £3,331.8.11. The excess was due to a larger number of shares being applied for through brokers and bankers, than was anticipated. One of our directors, Mr. Mack, has resigned his seat on the Board, owing to his absence from England, and to the pressure of his other business. Another director, Mr. Sellon, is, I regret to say, too ill to attend. We have a good deal of business in view in Egypt. As yet we have merely realised a small profit in the shape of dividends and interest in the ordinary course of business. Our managing director in Egypt has, however, ten or twelve promising investments in view. The situation in regard to them is not sufficiently advanced to go into details regarding them. The flotation of one company by our company is practically complete, and the flotation of another is very near completion. The Board expects that these flotations will show substantial profits when they have been brought to a successful issue. At our next meeting it will be possible to go more into detail, and it may be trusted that our business will by then have developed into a profitable and paying concern. We have the greatest confidence in Mr. Abdy, who has given every attention to our interests. A representative of the company has spent a little over a month in Egypt, and has been in consultation with Mr. Abdy. Owing to the distance of Egypt from London, it takes some time for full information of proposed transactions to reach London, and therefore, as was stated in the prospectus of the company, wide powers have been given to the local management in Egypt. It will, we confidently expect, soon be amply demonstrated that these powers have been made good use of. As regards the prosperity of Egypt, it seems to have come to stay, as it is due largely to the fact that, owing to continued security in Egypt, the natives of the country and Levantines are producing and using wealth which, during old troubled days, lay dormant and unknown. This latent wealth has now come to light, and a new era of commercial and industrial prosperity has opened for Egypt. Our company has been formed concurrently with this new cycle of prosperity, and will, it may be trusted, be of benefit to Egypt in directing the disposal of the accumulated wealth of the country into useful channels.

IMPORTANT SALE OF LAND.

The Wakfs Administration sold on Thursday last a part of the lands on the Rhoda Island belonging to the estate of the late Aly Pasha Cherif, which, being situated near the north end of this island, will not fail to benefit largely by the opening of the new Nile bridges. As might have been expected, the price obtained at the auction was higher than that lately paid for adjoining land, and we hear that the purchasers, Messrs. Zervudachi, have also bought up a lease that had five years to run on part of the land.

THE DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI.

A largely attended reception was given yesterday afternoon on board the Italian cruiser "Liguria".

The Duke of the Abruzzi attended the Zizinia Theatre yesterday evening.

This morning at 8 o'clock the "Liguria" left Alexandria for Spezia.

The Duke was graciously pleased to accept a copy of the work "Il Signor Marej" from Signor Marchi Matteo.

His Royal Highness received in audience yesterday Abbate Pasha.

PRINCE COLIBRI.

Through the kindness of the courteous impresario of this startling exhibition, we were enabled to satisfy our curiosity as to the truth or otherwise of the statement that "His Highness," whose height was given as 23½ inches, only weighed 7 lbs. 10 ounces. Upon the suggestion of his manager, that we should see for ourselves, we visited the Alhambra Theatre yesterday afternoon about 6 p.m. Here we were formally introduced to "Prince Colibri," who, upon rising from his tiny chair (which might have served for a doll's house) offered his hand and bade us welcome in excellent English. Resuming his seat, he entered upon a lively conversation, during which we had an opportunity of convincing ourselves that we had certainly seen "the smallest man in the world." His manager was good enough to allow us to take "His Highness" in our arms and place him upon the ground, very much to the amusement of the ladies and gentlemen present, who declared the comparison to be accurately suggestive of a scene from "Gulliver's Travels." His Highness appeared to appreciate his released position, and strutted lightly across the room with all the dignity of his title. He is a smart little fellow, although 23 years of age; and quite distinct from other similar freaks of nature, in being perfectly symmetrical, and even handsome in appearance. We shall be surprised if the public do not take the opportunity afforded them of inspecting this remarkable specimen of humanity, which should have special interest for the medical faculty. He is on view daily, from 5 till 11 p.m.

AMATEUR ATHLETIC SPORTS

THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL MEETING.

This great annual sporting event at Alexandria came off yesterday on the A. S. C. grounds in glorious weather, the heat of the sun being tempered by a deliciously cool breeze. Notwithstanding the fact that the reception held on board the Italian cruiser "Liguria" by the Duke of the Abruzzi drew away a number of people who would otherwise have been present, there was a bumper attendance of the public, the grandstand and enclosure being crowded, while the usual contingent of carriages lined the other side of the course in a double row. The members of the fair sex turned up in full force, and gave a bright colour to the surroundings. Some of the frocks worn were very smart indeed, and more than one called for especial admiration. Where so many were pretty, however, it would be invidious to single out any particular one; for special mention, though we may remark that the prevailing colour was white. Children, too, were there in their numbers, and fairly revelled in the sports.

The entries for the sports were far ahead of last year's, and taken all round the performances were better, although the adverse wind quite spoiled the times in all the events except the half-mile. The handicapping was certainly very good, as exemplified by the close finishes in many events, and by the fact that there were no less than three dead heats for either second or third. Handicapping is a very thankless task, but we think the four gentlemen responsible for yesterday's starts and penalties are to be congratulated on their work. We also think the revised scale of points for Lord Cromer's Championship Cup is a great improvement, and mediocre performers are now much less likely to be accidentally styled "champion." Yesterday's champion (J. R. Lees) fully deserved his honor, as he is a good all-round athlete. He picked up his points all along the programme, and although he only got one first, that first marked him as the fastest man on the course. He was deservedly applauded as he came up to get his cup. Callender, as usual, won the shot putting, but by a very small margin from his generously handicapped opponent. (Callender has now won four clocks for 1st in this event. If he intends winning it again next year might we suggest a change of rewards?) McLean, the veteran athlete, this year has been the unfortunate victim of several accidents in training, and appeared on the course after two weeks' abstention from the path and well-banded. He won the pole jump with 8 ft. 3 in., no further height being necessary, but his injuries prevented him from doing himself justice in the hurdles and long jump. Byrne's jump of 18 ft. 10 in. was a good one. Woodley deserves special mention as the winner of the 150 yards, 220 yards, and quarter-mile handicaps. He has run several times before but has never been so successful. His starts were a bit longer than last year's, but he was well trained and finished his races very strongly. Thurston annexed the high jump and got second in the pole jump. Blythman, who was second in the hundred yards, was expected to win the half, and to do well in the quarter, two races in which he occupied the post of honor, but the pace in both was either too hot, or he was off colour and could only get in fourth in each. Peel, who won the half-mile in good time, is the third member of the same family who has won this race.

At the conclusion of the sports the prizes were kindly distributed by Mrs. E. B. Gould, to whom the committee presented a handsome bouquet. The course was in excellent condition and reflects great credit on the clerk of the course, Mr. F. C. Haselden, to whom also is due the intricate construction of the obstacles in the obstacle-race. The thanks of the committee are due to Admiral Sir Massie Blomfield and to the steamship companies Prince, Moss, and Khedivial, for the flags, etc., with which the grandstand and course were profusely decorated. The bands of the R. Berkshire Regiment discoursed a choice selection of music during the afternoon, which was greatly appreciated. Mr. Percy Carver's absence was greatly felt, and we trust his trip home will thoroughly re-establish him after his recent illness. Mr. S. H. Carver took his place as judge this year and, with Mr. G. C. Stevenson, ably discharged the onerous duties. The referee was seldom requisitioned.

The following are the results of the various events:—

150 YARDS HANDICAP.—1st prize, Silver Cup (presented by Mahmoud Pasha Sidky); 2nd prize, Silver cigarette combination case; 3rd prize, Claret jug.
E. H. Woodley (6 yards) 1st.
C. Carmichael (10 yards) 2nd.
R. G. MacLaren (6 yards) 3rd.
15 entries. Carmichael looked all over a winner until five yards from the tape, when Woodley passed him and won by half a yard. Third close up. Time, 16 3/5 secs.
100 YARDS OPEN.—1st prize, Silver Cup (presented by the Alexandria-Ramleh Railway); 2nd, Travelling clock; 3rd, Claret jug.
Ali Fahmy Ahmed (pen. 3 yards) 1st.
Ali Fahmy Selim 2nd.
Hassanein Fahmy 3rd.
11 entries. Won by half a yard. Time, 11 3/5 secs.
PUTTING THE SHOT.—1st prize, Clock (presented by P. W. Carver, Esq.); 2nd, Biscuit box.
A. R. Callender (scratch) 1st.
R. B. McLean (allowed 4 ft.) 2nd.
8 entries. Callender's put of 38 ft. 9 in. brought him in half an inch in front of McLean, who, with his allowance, put 33 ft. 8 in.
100 YARDS RACE.—1st prize, Silver Cup (presented by E. B. Gould, Esq.); 2nd, Case salt sellers; 3rd, Biscuit box.
19 entries. Lees, the favorite for this, came away from the start and kept his lead, passing the post a winner by a yard and a half; a desperate tussle between Blythman and McLean for 2nd place ended in favor of Blythman by inches. Inches again separated McLean from Byrne. Time 11 3/5 secs.

HIGH JUMP (HANDICAP).—1st prize, Binooculars; 2nd, Gong (presented by Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Stacey).
1st, H. F. Thurston (allowed 4 in.) 5 ft. 4 in.
2nd, S. R. P. Carver (allowed 2 in.) 5 ft. 3 in.
2nd, J. R. Lees (allowed 2 in.) 5 ft. 3 in.

Eight entries. This competition was a great improvement on last year's.
200 YARDS OPEN RACE.—1st prize, Silver watch (presented by the Alexandria Tramway Co.); 2nd, Gladstone bag; 3rd, 1st stand.
Ali Fahmy Ahmed (Sc.) 1st.
Kamal Allam (15 yds.) 2nd.
Ali Fahmy Selim (5 yds.) 3rd.

Ali Fahmy Ahmed corkscrewed his way through the crowd and won by a yard. A foot between second and third. Time, 24 3/5 secs. There were 23 entries for this event.
230 YARDS HANDICAP.—1st prize, Kit bag (presented by Alexandria Staff of the E.T.C.); 2nd, Silver cigarette box; 3rd, Gold sleeve links.
E. H. Woodley (7 yds.) 1st.
J. R. Lees (Sc.) 2nd.
R. G. MacLaren (8 yds.) } dead heat 3rd.
P. J. Byrne (2 yds.) }
Lees, the scratch man, got through his men and led with 20 yards to go, but then Woodley, who seemed to stay the better, passed him and won by half a yard, Byrne and MacLaren being bracketed third a yard behind. Time 25 1/5 seconds.

SACK RACE. (Open to Army and Navy).—1st prize, £1; 2nd, 10s.; 3rd, 5s.
Pte. Fowler, R. Berks, 1st.
Pte. Norris, R. Berks, 2nd.
Pte. Burley, R. Berks, 3rd.
This race, as usual, caused great amusement and was won easily by Pte. Fowler.
POLE JUMP.—1st prize, Leather trunk (presented by H. H. Prince Omar Pasha Toussoun); 2nd, Case of razors.
Owing to Haselden's scratching this was easily won by R. B. McLean with 8 ft. 3 in., Thurston being second with 7 ft. 3 in. McLean was penalised 9 inches.

440 YARDS HANDICAP.—1st prize, The Temple Shakespeare (40 vols.); 2nd, "Encyclopædia of Sport"; 3rd, Menpes' "Japan." (All presented by the Ladies of Alexandria and Ramleh.)
E. H. Woodley (10 yds.) 1st.
R. G. MacLaren (15 yds.) 2nd.
P. J. Byrne (3 yds.) 3rd.
Betts, off the 15 yards start, looked a winner until 30 yards from the tape, when he broke down and MacLaren came on, but tiring rapidly he allowed Woodley to deprive him of first place by inches only, with Byrne a good third. There were 13 entries. This is the closest finish we have ever seen in the quarter mile. Time, 56 1/5 secs.

CHILDREN'S RACE.—This was, as usual, productive of much merriment, there being thirty-six juveniles in the race, all of whom received a prize. The race was won by Master Burrill, with Miss Mollie Briscoe second.
120 YARDS HURDLE RACE.—1st prize, Picture (presented by S. H. Carver, Esq.); 2nd, Silver butter dish; 3rd, Pair of flower-pot stands.

1st heat.
S. R. P. Carver (owes 9 yards), 1st; H. F. Thurston (owes 4 yards), 2nd. Carver won this by a couple of yards from Thurston. MacLaren was left at the post. Time 20 4/5 secs.
2nd heat.
C. Carmichael (owes 4 yards), 1st; J. R. Lees (owes 9 yards), 2nd. McLean (owes 15 yards) was expected to annex this heat, but his injured ankle kept him from securing a place. Time, 20 1/5 secs.

Final heat.
S. R. P. Carver (owes 9 yards); 1st; C. Carmichael (owes 4 yards), 2nd; J. R. Lees (owes 9 yards), 3rd. Won by Carver, after Carmichael looked like scoring by a yard and a half; third a couple of yards away. Time, 19 4/5 secs.
EUROPEAN BOYS' RACE.—1st prize, Silver watch (presented by G. B. Alderson, Esq.); 2nd, Travelling clock; 3rd, Knife.
W. Trulock, 1st.
H. Elsworth, 2nd.
T. Bent 3rd.
Won by a yard; rest close up.

VETERANS' RACE.—1st prize, Gladstone bag; 2nd, 10s. pair and tong; 3rd, Pair bombon dishes.
Freeman (pen. 2 yards) 1st.
Tweedie, 2nd.
Burrill (pen. 1 yard) 3rd.
A good race, which Tweedie might have won but for having run anything but straight. This was Freeman's second successive win. There were six competitors.

NATIVE BOYS' RACE.—1st prize, Silver watch; 2nd, Travelling clock; 3rd, Knife.
Abbas Zewan, 1st.
Ali El Abani, 2nd.
Ahmed Shukri, 3rd.
OBSTACLE RACE.—Pte Fowler, 1st.
The obstacles this year were very good, and the race proved interesting and amusing.

LONG JUMP.—1st prize Tantalus (presented by F. Allen Esq.); 2nd, Silver Cup.
P. J. Byrne (allowed 8 inches) won this with a net jump of 18 ft. 10 in., J. T. Atkin being second with 17 ft. 10 in.

HALF MILE HANDICAP.—1st, Silver Cup (presented by E. A. Benachi, Esq.); 2nd, Set of covers; 3rd, Powder.
E. T. Peel (15 yards) 1st.
J. R. Lees (10 yards) 2nd.
R. G. MacLaren (30 yards) 3rd.

This was one of the best races of the day, the time also being good. Peel made the race very hot from the start and led round the hurdle. Nearing the tape Lees made a big effort to overhaul him, but didn't manage it, Peel winning by three yards, with MacLaren inches in front of Blythman, the scratch man. Time, 2 mins. 10 secs.

TUG OF WAR.—Royal Garrison Artillery 1st. No. 8 team Royal Berkshire Regiment 2nd. The Fire Brigade beat the Police in their confined tug-of-war.
CHAMPION.—J. R. Lees, 25 points.

LA DELEGATION MUNICIPALE

(Communication Officielle)

La Délégation Municipale s'est réunie le 11 avril 1905 sous la présidence de M. Ambroise A. Ralli, à 4 h. de relevée.

Présents MM. Fenderl, Mansour Bey Youssef, Stross et Zervudachi, membres, W. P. Chataway, administrateur, I. Sedky Bey, secrétaire.

La Délégation charge l'administrateur d'étudier les moyens de porter remède aux inconvénients dont se plaignent les habitants et les propriétaires des maisons avoisinant Ghebel Ghillil tant en ce qui concerne les émanations provenant du dépôt d'immondices que de celles résultant du passage des tombereaux des cultivateurs chargés de balayures à destination des champs.

Elle prend connaissance d'une lettre du Ministère des Travaux Publics informant qu'il consent à céder à la ville la zone demandée de la carrière de basalte d'Abou Zabel.

La Délégation décide d'imprimer et d'étudier une prochaine séance le rapport annuel de M. le Colonel Hopkinson Bey sur le service des pompes.

Elle renvoie au Comité des Finances et des Travaux Publics diverses propositions pour l'irrigation du jardin Nouzha et des berges du Canal Mahmoudieh.

La Délégation décide de soumettre à la Commission des lettres des Ministères de l'Intérieur et des Finances concernant la demande de la Municipalité tendant à la cession des biens libres et à leur gestion.

Le Ministère ne consent pas à céder les biens libres mais il est disposé à en confier plus tard la gestion à la ville. Dès maintenant le Gouvernement accepterait de remettre à la Municipalité le service de perception des loyers des biens libres en vue d'économiser les frais qu'il entraîne actuellement.

La Délégation prend note d'une dépêche ministérielle approuvant la décision de la Commission concernant la réorganisation d'une partie des services de la Municipalité.

La Délégation adjuge à MM. Allen Alderson pour L.E. 515 la fourniture d'un rouleau compresseur système Fowler.

M. D. Moscatelli est déclaré adjudicataire des travaux d'établissement d'une barrière en fer autour du terrain de la Colonne Pompée pour L.E. 141 et de la fourniture et répandage de 720 mc de chaux pour la réparation de la route de Montazah pour L.E. 183.

De nouvelles offres devront être provoquées pour la démolition d'une maison rue Sinadino.

Vu la requête de nombreux locataires et propriétaires de la partie ouest de la place Mehemmed Aly, la Délégation décide de mettre en adjudication la construction d'un chalet de nécessité en remplacement de l'urinoir actuel et sur le même modèle de celui qui a été déjà construit de l'autre côté de la place.

Les services sont en même temps chargés de proposer des emplacements sur le quai pour l'installation d'un ou de deux urinoirs en remplacement de celui de la Poste.

La Délégation prend note de la réponse de la Cie des téléphones au sujet des remarques qui lui ont été faites concernant certaines déficiences de son service et décide d'écrire à cette Compagnie en insistant sur la question des formules pour plaintes éventuelles à remettre aux abonnés.

La Délégation prend note de l'arrangement conclu par le comité spécial avec M. André, ingénieur paysagiste, pour les parcs publics.

Elle règle, sauf approbation du Comité des Travaux Publics, une question relative à la construction de la conduite devant relier les nouveaux filtres au Collecteur Est.

La séance est levée à 7 h. 12 p.m.

THE ASSOUAN DAM.

(FROM AN ENGINEERING CORRESPONDENT.)

Reports of a somewhat sensational character have been published within the last few days relative to the safety of the Nile dam at Assouan. In one "quarter the suggestion was put forward that owing to an "alarming scientific discovery" the dam is in danger, and in another that "a possible danger" exists. The statements to which we refer are probably due to an entire misconception of the true meaning of a report submitted, on March 11, by Sir William Garstin to the Egyptian Council of Ministers. Sir William then stated that circumstances had arisen inducing him to modify the conclusion that the Assouan dam should be raised without delay. The reasons for this decision, are that before adding to the height of the structure it is desirable to adopt measures for protecting the downstream bed of the river from erosion by water flowing through the sluices of the dam, and also to consider carefully the views expressed in a recent paper by Professor Karl Pearson and Mr. I. W. Atcherley on "Some Disregarded Points in the Stability of Masonry Dams." The authors of this paper are mathematicians whose opinions cannot be lightly dismissed, but we may say at once that no abstract theory can sweep away, or in any way disturb, the solid basis that secures the safety of the Assouan dam.

To make this point clear we will briefly recall the circumstances attending the design of the structure. When Sir William Willcocks, as Director-General of Reservoirs, first prepared drawings for a dam, in 1890, it was intended that water should be held up to the height of 30.50 metres above zero of the Assouan gauge, the capacity of the proposed reservoir being 85 milliard cubic feet. Similar drawings were made in 1894 for the assistance of the Government in deciding whether the reservoir should be established at Assouan, Kalabsha, or Silsila. Both sets of designs were in accordance with accepted principles, and provided such a factor of safety as to ensure security. Moreover, as pointed out in the accompanying report by the Director-General, the profiles compared favorably with those of well-known European dams, whose stability had been established by many years of actual use. The question of the site was finally settled by the International Commission appointed on the recommendation of Sir William Garstin. This commission selected Assouan as the most suitable position, and approved both the height of the dam and the capacity of the reservoir, but it was afterwards settled that the former should only be carried to the height of 22.50 metres above zero of the Assouan gauge, with a corresponding reduction in the capacity of the reservoir to 35 milliard cubic feet. Of the three members of the commission, M. Boulé was concerned chiefly about the Philæ temples; Signor Torricelli about pressures on the masonry, and Sir Benjamin Baker about strains arising from expansion and contraction. In the end Signor Torricelli prevailed, in the sense that the commission decided to limit the theoretical toe pressures to about 4.6 tons per square foot. It is interesting to compare this limit with the pressures in representative dams in different parts of the world. Thus, the Furens dam, in France, has a maximum pressure of 5.48 tons per square foot, the Gileppe dam, in Belgium, 9.14 tons per square foot, the Khamis dam, in Algeria, 10 tons per square foot, while the Quaker Bridge dam in the United States was designed for a maximum pressure of 16.6 tons per square foot. The comparison shows that, as finally proportioned, the Assouan dam was designed on extremely safe lines, and as reduction of pressure always causes the lines of resultant pressures to approach the middle line of the profile, the risk of tensile strain is proportionately averted. The general result was that whereas the Assouan dam was intended to hold up merely 35 milliard cubic feet, it was of such proportions that engineers were justified in believing the work to be capable of impounding 70 milliards by raising the superstructure six metres above the original height.

The reasonable character of this contention is demonstrated by the consideration that, assuming the masonry had been so raised, its profile would be fully equal, in point of stability, to that of the Furens dam, one of the safest structures of its class hitherto built.

Professor Pearson's communication is valuable as a mathematical essay, and will doubtless prove helpful to engineers by throwing much needed light upon aspects of masonry dam design that have been somewhat obscure up to the present, but it cannot destroy confidence in the strength, stability, and endurance of structures that are proportioned on lines already proved to be perfectly safe.

Rankine pointed out years ago that the limiting pressure for the outside toe of a dam should be less than that for the inside toe. When the maximum pressure is on the inside toe, the only force operating is vertical pressure, but when the maximum occurs on the outside, the thrust of the water is also a factor, and the pressure is the resultant of the two forces. The effect of a horizontal component upon the vertical resistance of masonry has scarcely been investigated up to the present, and this is one of the most important matters discussed in the paper mentioned above. Professor Pearson advances the view that the pressure of water behind a dam tends to cause failure by vertical fracture near the outer toe, instead of causing failure along a horizontal plane. While we are very much inclined to doubt the applicability of the new theory to the Assouan dam, there is good reason for full inquiry. If it should be found, after careful mathematical investigation, that the theory is so applicable, then the question will arise as to how far the level of water held up may be increased, without reducing the factor of safety to a value that would be too small for an engineering work upon which the prosperity of Egypt depends to so large an extent.

With regard to erosion of the river and below the dam, there is no ground for anxiety. The rush of water discharged has made holes, in some cases more than 20 feet deep, but none of them are nearer than about 45 feet from the toe of the dam. Sir Benjamin Baker has recently made careful examination of the masonry aprons laid experimentally in front of the downstream face of the dam, with the result that he recommended the extension of the protective work from one bank of the Nile to the other. Judging by the satisfactory condition of the experimental aprons, it seems probable that no undesirable development will take place after the completion of the continuous apron. Even if the remedy proposed should ultimately prove to be insufficient, it would be easy to modify the erosive action of the water by the construction of a low weir, something like the auxiliary weirs built below the Delta Barrage by Sir Haubury Brown, and thereby to form a water cushion for the protection of the river bed.

Until the masonry apron has been constructed—a work that will occupy about two years—nothing will be done in connexion with the raising of the dam, beyond inquiry into the theoretical propositions that have been brought forward by Professor Pearson. ("Times" Engineering Supplement.)

ZAGAZIG NOTES.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Zagazig, April 11.

The date of the Zagazig Amateur Athletic Sports, which were to have been held on Telbait market ground, on the 14th inst., has been changed as that day is a Catholic festival day. The committee have now chosen Saturday, 15th inst. The sports will take place on Mr. Franghiadis' grounds, at his cotton store, close to the station. There will be about 16 events, including flat races, hurdle race, three-legged race, sack race, obstacle race, long jump, high jump, and tug-of-war. A 100-yards flat race is reserved for the Government school boys, and also a tug-of-war between the fourth and third year boys of the school. There will also be a race of 60 yards for children under ten years of age. All the races are mixed, Europeans as well as natives competing, with the exception of the flat races, where Europeans are separate. The military band will play during the intervals, and tea will be served on the grounds.

The peasants of Fakous Markaz have suffered great damage to their crops, owing to the heavy showers of hail and the cold which has prevailed for a week past. They have petitioned the Moudiriah to be exempted from taxes on the lands which have been thus damaged.

The Moudiriah authorised 'Abdul-Hamid Bey Abaza, the secretary of the Agricultural Society, to look into this complaint, and he is now inspecting the damaged lands and taking measures to protect the crops.

THE BANDMANN-DALLAS OPERA COMPANY.

AND SOME OF THE LONG JOURNEYS THEY MAKE.

Mr. Bandmann can honestly claim for his company a world-wide reputation. This tour for instance commenced last June at Rio Janeiro, Buenos Ayres following, then back to England and out again to West Indies, British Guiana, Bermuda, Canada, and across the Atlantic from Boston to Gibraltar, Malta, and Cairo. After Cairo the company are proceeding to Bombay, Ceylon, Penang, Singapore, Batavia, Manila, Hong Kong, Shanghai, Japan, then back again to Rangoon and Calcutta, truly a colossal trip. The story of the Bandmann-Dallas Company is this.

For years Mr. Bandmann's company and Mr. Dallas's company had been rivals. They had practically the same territory, and wherever one went the other was almost sure to follow, to the injury of both. This went on until both managers came to themselves and decided that it was better to help than to injure each other. They therefore entered into a sort of partnership which has put an end to further competition, and now Mr. Bandmann under the firm name takes his own company on the road, and Mr. Dallas under the firm name is managing his old company.

The applications of subscribers to the Cairo season has far exceeded expectations. Those who have not already secured seats should do so at once, or they may meet with disappointment. It is especially pleasing to hear of this greatly increased patronage to the English company.

EGYPTIAN ARMENIAN IN TROUBLE

The New York papers state that a certain Sarkis Bedrossian, whom they describe as an Egyptian, but whose name shows him to be of Armenian origin, has been captured in Brooklyn. When searched he was found to have a letter from his wife to the effect that she and his four children would meet him on the arrival of the steamship at Alexandria. Detectives found jewellery valued at from $4,000 to $5,000 in a suit case at his lodgings, at No. 294, First street. The detectives believe that he has been implicated in robberies to the extent of $75,000.

L. M. Piccard, a jeweller at No. 705, Fulton street, Brooklyn, was a sufferer from a visit of Bedrossian, and brought about his arrest. After Bedrossian had left his store he missed a pair of diamond set earrings valued at $100, and a day later he inserted a notice in a trade paper describing the thief and his methods. Mr. Piccard claimed that the man who stole earrings was an expert "palmer" and the jewellery was taken from the counters of his store by a trick of sleight-of-hand.

Answering the description of the man wanted, a firm of jewellers at No. 1, Maiden lane notified both the New York and Brooklyn Detective bureaux on a recent date that such a person was then at their store. When Bedrossian was taken to Brooklyn, Mr. Piccard failed to positively identify him, and the man, who gave the name of Peterson, was about to be discharged, when the detectives prevailed on the Magistrate to allow them to charge him with vagrancy, despite his golden belt.

As he refused to give his address the detectives set about to unravel the mysterious silence of their prisoner and finally found his lodging place, which was meagrely furnished. The opening of the suit case was a revelation. The leather receptacle was literally overflowing with golden ornaments, and one of the first things to be revealed was the pair of diamond set earrings bearing the private marks of the Fulton street jeweller.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents, but we wish, in a spirit of fair play to all to permit—within certain necessary limits—free discussion.

BACON—SHAKESPEARE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EGYPTIAN GAZETTE.
Sir,—The sonnet quoted by your correspondent "Moth" may also be printed as follows:—

Why is My verse so barren of new pride
So far from variaTion or quick change?
Why with the time do I not glance, a Side
To new-found 'Methods and to compounds Strange?
Why write I still all one, ever the Same
And-keep InvenTion in a noted weed
That every word doth almoSt tell My name
Showing their blTH and where they did proceed.]

From this it would appear that the sonnet was written by one Smith, and not by either Bacon or Shakespeare.
